

A Shot To Win

I've never been a casanova with overwhelming confidence sometimes I feel a little awkward and I need a little 90 proof assistance yeah she caught my eye leaning on her chevy pumping petrol at the gas and go no time for second chances Had to find the courage had to find it quick at the bar across the parking lot I took a swig

A Shot To Win

I need a little help to begin A Shot To Win win you love yes I admit I'm the king of missed opportunities what ever I did, I'd end up losing it all with insecurities but from now on Im gonna run with every little chance I get come on baby give the new luck to me I got a lot of good love I can prove It honey all we need
